WIYOT TRIBE ADULT VOCATIONAL TRAINING (AVT) FUND REQUEST

This fund is to help support our Tribal Members in their vocational/job training goals.

The amount of awarded funds is dependent on the number of accepted applications. The Wiyot Tribe, as the administrator of these funds, has the right to deny applications based on application completion and need.

When accepted, you agree to use any awarded funds for transportation, food and drink to a training site, tuition, personal appearance items such as clothing and shoes, housing and housewares, reasonable shipment of household goods, childcare, emergency needs, job placement, and professional job counseling.

Misuse of the funds outside of these purposes may deny you future acceptance and may also include repayment back to the US Government.

To Apply:

- 1) Provide proof of Tribal Enrollment. Copy of Tribal ID card/role number.
- 2) Proof of Enrollment in a Vocational Training program - This could be a receipt of fees or other proof that you are currently enrolled in a vocational/job training program which does not exceed 2 years, as long as you demonstrate adequate progress. A one-year extension may be granted for registered nurse training.
- 3) Complete the Application – Fill in all information.
- 4) Return the application to the Health & Human Services Department.
- 5) Contact us at (707) 733-5055 for any questions concerning this application.
- 6) Any changes in your program schedule must be immediately reported (within ten days), and a copy of your progress reports must be submitted to the office.
